

Akfen REIT maintained its support to numerous social projects in 2022

Akfen Real Estate Investment Trust (Akfen REIT), which continues to enrich its portfolio through investments in diverse areas of the real estate market and continuously increases its rental income at record rates, maintained its support to social responsibility projects in 2022

Akfen Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) continued to demonstrate its insight on the social responsibility as well as its commitment to the society by maintaining its support to the social responsibility projects in 2022. Said support allowed the company to make contributions to wide range of social benefit projects varying from education particularly for the women, youth and children to preservation of the environment, from health to preservation of cultural heritages.

Akfen REIT endorsed and offered support to the projects such as the National Projects, Individual Development Program and International Youth Award executed by Human Resources Education and Health Foundation of Turkey (TİKAV) founded in 1999, with aim to take further steps towards a sustainable future. Hosting the meetings organized by TİKAV in 2022 for all currently implemented projects, Akfen REIT acted as the leading force for organizing the events by TİKAV Foundation, such as Golden Award Ceremony held at Novotel in Karaköy, Istanbul, and 14th Active Award Leaders Meeting and 5th Active Supervisors Meeting held at Tuzla İbis.

Furthermore, Akfen REIT also undertaken various sponsorships for Real Estate Investors Association (GYODER) Summit and Tourism Investors Association of Turkey (TTYD) Summit, and the total amount of the donations and aids made by the Company surpassed TRY 500.000.

Akfen REIT officials expressed their ongoing and persistent support such projects as an integral part of the company's social responsibility approach, and all officials stated in unison that: "The investments we made to the social projects are indicative of the long-term commitment, not for one year only. As Akfen REIT, we will continue our efforts to contribute to society and invest in a sustainable future."

Said commitments further demonstrated Akfen REIT's determination to maintain and expand its social responsibility programs in line with the growing economy and opportunities to efficiently make the difference.
