

Akfen REIT maintained its support to numerous social projects in 2023

Akfen Real Estate Investment Trust (Akfen REIT), which continues to enrich its portfolio through investments in diverse areas of the real estate market and continuously increases its rental income at record rates, maintained its support to social responsibility projects in 2023

Akfen Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) continued to provide support to the social responsibility projects in 2023.

The Company maintained its contributions in a wide range of fields, from education, sports and health to preservation of the environment, from those affected by the major earthquake disaster to assistance to various non-governmental organizations. Said support allowed the company to make contributions to wide range of social benefit projects varying from education particularly for the women, youth and children to preservation of the environment, from health to preservation of cultural heritages.

Akfen REIT endorsed and offered support to the projects such as the National Projects, Individual Development Program and International Youth Award executed by Human Resources Education and Health Foundation of Turkey (TİKAV) founded in 1999, with aim to take further steps towards a sustainable future. Moreover, Akfen REIT hosted the meetings organized by TİKAV in 2023 for ongoing projects and provided support such as accommodation, event space, coffee break and cocktail sponsorships and ceremony dinners.

The support for Fenerbahçe College Sports Club in the form of sponsorship demonstrated the significance the company attaches to sports and education; the investments by Akfen REIT in social projects stood out as an explicit expression of the long-term commitment and responsibility towards the society.

Earthquake relief donations and the accommodations provided for AFAD officials, the social relief efforts in cooperation with Fıratcan Construction Company, and the donation made for Çanakkale Memorial Forest further highlighted the support provided to those affected by natural disasters and to the environmental projects. Such endeavors by Akfen REIT reflected the comprehensive social responsibility approach intended to touch every segment of the society.

Akfen REIT further undertook various sponsorships for the Real Estate Investors Association (GYODER) Summit and Tourism Investors Association of Turkey (TTYD) Summit. Akfen REIT strongly demonstrated its commitment to sustainable development and social progress through such contributions, which surpassed TRY 15 million in all support categories.

Said commitments further demonstrated Akfen REIT's determination to maintain and expand its social responsibility programs in line with the growing economy and opportunities to efficiently make the difference.
